

Classification of Offenders

	ORGANIZED	DISORGANISED
VICTIMS	Wives and girlfriends safe – gets more pleasure from killing – Single White Female.	Anybody – very poor relations with women in general. Usually live alone.
CRIME SCENE	Crime scene staged, and transport body	No staging, leave body where killed.
WEAPON	May carry weapon with him, and take them away after the crime	Uses weapon of opportunity, frenzied attack, often depersonalizes the victim, i.e. turn them on their stomachs
CHILDHOOD	Troublemaker at school.	Classmates won't remember the offender.
PERSONALITY	Externalize anger, often attractive, confident, intelligent, good verbal skills. History of problems with authority.	Internalise anger, physically unattractive, low self-esteem, and previous suicide attempts, not very articulate in conversation.
RELATIONSHIPS WITH WOMEN	Talks to women, mood is fairly controlled.	Doesn't often talk to women, mood is anxious
PLACE OF RESIDENCE	Live some distance from the crime, except the first crime, as it is close to home and more comfortable. Usually live with a woman.	Kills where there is familiarity, usually close to home or to work. Lives alone.
PRE-OFFENCE	May be precipitated by loss of job or break-up with partner.	Low self-esteem comes on victim of opportunity.
PUBLICITY	Takes interest in media reports of crime, will often try to get involved with the police investigation	No interest in media reports of crime.